Our History.
Your Love Story

“Discover History and Elegance at Our Events Venue!

Experience the legacy of William Rotch, Jr., a prominent figure in New Bedford's history. Step into the past as you explore our beautifully preserved 1834 Greek Revival house at 396 County Street.

The exterior remains true to its origins, offering a timeless atmosphere.

Our lush gardens, reminiscent of the Jones residency, feature a 19th-century wooden lattice pergola, formal boxwood rose parterre garden, specimen garden, and a tranquil woodland shade garden. Amidst apple and pear trees, hydrangea, dogwoods, and heritage trees, you'll find a piece of history.

Join us for unforgettable moments as the museum transforms into a captivating events venue. Enjoy summer concerts, theater performances, educational programs, garden tours, family activities, and special events in the charming ambiance of our historic gardens. Come create memories with us!”

We look forward to hosting your event and assisting you with what you need to plan it. We recognize that a successful event relies on good communication. To that end, we provide this information, and encourage clients to contact us with any and all questions and plans for their events. Thank you.

Description of RJD Venue, Garden & Mansion:
The outdoor venue is an acre, with several hundred feet of open lawn, and ornamental gardens. The historic pergola serves as a unique backdrop for ceremonies. The slate patio is 1600 square feet and is tented from May through October.

The indoor venue is the 1834 mansion, with original Mahogany and Walnut woodwork, New Bedford Pairpoint glass chandeliers, original artwork and period furniture. In December, the first floor is decorated with Christmas trees and festive garlands.

What’s in Bloom?
Approximate flowering times of the garden are below:

May: Forsythia
June: Dogwood
July through August: Hydrangea
Jun through September: Roses

Available Through the RJD Venue:

Outdoor Event Capacity
- Table seating can be provided for 100 people (125 for row seating without tables) under the canopy.
- Lawn capacity has a maximum of 250 people (chairs provided for up to 130, any additional seating needed is not provided)

Indoor Event Capacity
- Cocktail party (standing room only) or seated rows available for a maximum of 45 people.
- Dinner (table seating) available for a maximum of 40 people.

Tables and chairs
- Up to 125 black folding chairs
- Up to 20 green plastic lawn chairs
- A smart TV for audio/visual presentations (rental)
- One guaranteed dressing area in the main building for weddings.
- Pending approval, a second dressing area, in the Coach House classroom.
- Restrooms
  - Outdoors: Three restrooms for guests including one handicap accessible restroom
  - Indoors: One accessible restroom on 1st floor
- Street parking (no off-street parking) including one handicap accessible spot on Madison Street
- Full accessibility on patio, and floors B and 1 of the Mansion. Accessibility to main outdoor area; some limitations in certain areas of the garden.
- Off-Street shuttle drop off area; driveway restricted to cars, vans and smaller busses (the circular driveway off County Street)
- Access to the RJD Venue kitchen, on the basement level; limited space inside the RJD Venue fridge
- Pending approval, large space for catering & prep work in the Coach House classroom. (Rental)
- By request, the Mansion may be opened during garden events for guest visitation or wedding party photography; additional hourly fee applies. For contracts of $3,000 and higher, one-hour mansion access for tours only is included in the price.
- By request, an RJD “party favor” may be added for guests to take away; party favor is a novelty seed packet, with RJD house printed on the front. Cost: $2/packet.
- For rentals which include a marriage ceremony or reception, included in the rental fee is a dual membership in the couple’s name.
Client Responsibilities

- Catering: Food served at rental functions must be from a licensed caterer or restaurant.
  - Caterers must be properly licensed and fully insured for food service
  - Caterers must remove trash created by catering services. Trash may not be dragged across property. Bins will be provided by RJD Venue for events under 100 persons. Larger events must take their trash with them or arrange for additional trash pick up through the city.
  - Nothing may be dumped onto the grounds
- Beverage catering:
  - Bartenders must be properly licensed and fully insured for serving alcohol
  - Bartending staff must remove any trash created by the bar. Trash may not be dragged across property. Bins will be provided by RJD Venue.
  - Nothing may be dumped on the grounds
- Proof of Insurance as follows:
  - Proof of Insurance for general liability (see contract for details)
  - Proof of Insurance for liquor liability, if not through licensed bartender (see contract for details)
- Table linens
- Decoration (see restrictions below)
- Seating charts
- Dance floor
- P.A. / sound systems / microphone
- Tables, chairs and linens not offered by RJD
- Dining, glass and serving ware
- All arrangements and correspondence with event vendors (caterers, florist, entertainers, licensing boards, shuttle drivers)

- Coordination with RJD Functions Staff about any and all vendor drop offs and arrival times on the day of the event.
- Coordination with RJD Functions Staff about arrival times of speakers, presenters, and special guests (like the groom)
- Anything not listed as being provided by the venue
- Event planning services, coordinator of vendors, etc. At this time, our venue does not offer coordination of these services (example: seating charts, menu development, etc).

Garden Venue Policies

- In general, the RJD Venue cannot allow even temporary alterations to the historic building or landscape, or anything that might risk the health and appearance of the gardens and grounds. We hope clients will enjoy the natural beauty of the space and appreciate their understanding.
- Fire Code/Capacity (assumes tent use)
  - 170 - cocktail setting (people standing)
  - 110 - dining (tables and chairs)
  - 90 - dining and dancing
- Up to 200 guests may be seated on the lawn, with the following conditions:
  - The additional chair rental is the responsibility of the client
  - There is no rain accommodation for more than 170 guests.
- Base venue rental fees range from $500 to $4,200. Pricing is based on four factors: the number of guests expected, the duration of the event (under 2 hours or over 2 hours); the day of the week (Monday through Friday, or weekend); and the time of day (before 1pm; after 1pm). Additional fees for “add on” are priced a-la-carte.
- One-hour set up time is included with a 2-hour event rental fee; two hours set up time is included with event rentals that are 4-5 hours or more.
- Client and catering have one hour post-event end time for clean up and break down. If more time is needed, it should be requested and may be subject to an additional charge.
- Bands and DJ’s must not start before 11am and be done promptly by 10pm.
- Events may not start before 7:30am and must end promptly by 10pm.
Garden Venue Policies (cont.)
- Nothing may be stored on site, before or after the event with the exception of rental deliveries (tables, glassware), and flowers. RJD staff must be made aware of delivery items and schedules.
- Nothing may be staked to the ground, tied to trees, draped over hedges, or attached to any part of the house without permission of RJD staff and these alterations are generally not allowed at all.

Disallowed:
- Scattering rose petals (or any other plant or organic matter) due to the risk of infecting plants on site
- Incendiary devices (fireworks), candles
- Glitter, confetti, rice, or anything which cannot easily be removed if thrown
- Pets or other animals (with the exception below)
- Smoking (guests may smoke outside the green fence and are asked to use the receptacles provided)
- Release of live birds or insects (e.g., butterflies, doves)

Allowed:
- Bubbles
- Helium balloons that are well-anchored
- Conventional balloons that are anchored
- Floral arrangements
- Pets who are part of the ceremony or presentation
- Service animals
- Games on grounds (frisbee, corn hole) are welcome as long as close attention is paid to the safety of individuals and the property.

Mansion Venue Policies
- Events may not start before 9:00am and must end by 10pm
- Two-hour set up time is included with 5 hour events. Client and catering have one hour post-event end time for clean up and break down. If more time is needed, it should be requested and may be subject to an additional charge.
- Nothing may be stored on site, before or after the event with the exception of rental deliveries (tables, glassware), and flowers. RJD staff must be made aware of delivery items and schedules.
- Food and drink are allowed only on the first floor.

Disallowed:
- Balloons, streamers, confetti, banners - most decorations, due to inability to hang things on walls
- Incendiary devices (fireworks), incense, candles
- Pets or other animals (with the exception below)
- Red wine, or other red beverage

Allowed:
- Floral arrangements
- Pets who are part of the ceremony or presentation
- Service animals

We could not possibly anticipate every situation, so clients should speak to RJD Functions Staff regarding the details of their event, including performers, decorations, guest needs, lighting, shuttles, entertainment, etc.

Testimonials

“We want to thank the RJD events staff from the bottom of our hearts for executing such a flawless day for us. We decided to hold both our ceremony and reception in your beautiful gardens and it did not disappoint. The RJD Museum will always hold a place in our hearts as the most perfect wedding venue. The day would not been what it was without your event staff’s assistance.”

-Kelsey & Larry
June 25th, 2022

“The rose garden, the tent that was already set-up, the options to have guests see the house, and the location were all incredible! Claudio was super helpful day of, and the pictures from our event are wonderful. Most of our guests were from out-of-state, and were blown away by the venue! A great introduction to New Bedford.”

-Alex & Edward
June 2022, Rehearsal Dinner

“We had our wedding ceremony in the garden on July 16th and it was the most beautiful day! The grounds are absolutely stunning and we are so happy with how everything went. The functions coordinator made this day so very special for us. Them and the RJD staff organized everything for our ceremony and made it look so effortless. We didn’t have to worry about anything. We are so grateful for them and everything they did for us on our wedding day.”

July 16th, 2022

“Being able to have everything on site such as the tent, tables and chairs made the process less stressful. The grounds are lovely and great to be able to tour the museum. The RJD Staff were great to work with very helpful during the whole process.”

-Zenaide
August 2022, Baby Shower

“We could not be happier with our experience. The venue was beautiful, the gardens were still going despite it being November, and the RJD events staff was extremely helpful and accommodating.”
